

Four Horses Compared

Zech 1:8-11

Riders among Myrtle Trees

First Rider on Red Horse “Red” comes from the word “Adam” and refers to the flesh. In Tabernacle it is “death to self message” In NT it is “flame colored” (ref. to Satan, red dragon, Rev 12:3).

Second Rider also Red Horse Repetition of the first.

Third Rider, Speckled Horse This is a “piercing bright red color”. Also flame colored, bay or sorrel. Similar to scarlet or crimson used in Tabernacle which speaks of “blood covering sacrifice”. In NT Satan uses the color as a mockery of the royalty of Christ.

Fourth Rider on White Horse is the purest of white. In the tabernacle it speaks of purity and holiness. (See Is. 1:18 or Dan. 11:35, 12:10) which speaks of purging, cleansing.

All 4 are sent by the Lord to walk (patrol) to & fro in the earth and report that the earth is still and resting quietly.

Mark Jantzi, 11-8-14

Zech 6:1-8

Chariot Horses

First team is Red. Same word as Zech 1:8. It is not clear if this team is sent out or if they are the same as the bay horses in team #4.

Second chariot team is Black, a color not found in the tabernacle. Refers to night, disease, tribulation, absence of light (sun darkened). They are sent to the north, source of enemies, invasion, trouble cold, whirlwind. North is Syria (Islam) Turkey, Russia. These teams have quieted His Spirit in North.

Third team also White sent to follow Black team. Two enemies need to be defeated.

Fourth team is Grisled (dappled or spotted as by hail): sent to the south (“right hand”). Egypt. The Bay (very strong, swift, courageous, steeds), seem to be a separate team, sent to patrol (protect, watch) over the earth. See Job 39:19-25.

These 4 teams (spirits of the heavens stand before God) come from between two mountains of solid brass (judgment). See Job 39:19-25

Rev 6:1-8

Opened First Four Seals

First rider on White Horse. Has a bow (war weapon), given a crown (a chaplet, not of gold), goes forth to conquer. Is this 2 Thes. 2:8, a false Christ? Considering the other 3 horses. Rev. 4:4-10

Second rider on red (fire-like, flame colored, like red dragon) horse. Takes peace from earth, men kill one another. Given great sword (figurative, to execute judgment).

Third on black horse. Rider carries balance scale. Brings famine (food shortage). Hurt not the oil and the wine (divine provision for God’s anointed ones).

Fourth rider on Pale (greenish, grayish yellow, of feminine appearance horse. Rider is Death (or pestilence) and is closely followed by Hell (hades, place of the souls of dead sinners). Given authority to kill ¼ of the earth by: 1) sword (saber, a long broad cutlass, beheading tool), 2) hunger, 3) pestilence (disease, plagues) & 4) beasts (wild or spiritual).
